WELCOME TO THE BROKEN BOW SHORTHORN BULL SALE

The Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn range bulls are back at Broken Bow for this annual range bull sale, sponsored by the Nebraska Shorthorn-Polled Shorthorn Association. Cattlemen from throughout the area have come to rely on this source of Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn range bulls each spring. This years consignment of bulls will be even better, with more consignors bringing you their top bulls. You'll note that most of the same consignors are back with bulls again this year along with several new consignors. The number of bulls consigned by each breeder is down, but the quality of the bulls they have brought to this sale is the best ever.

Commercial cattlemen are taking a renewed interest in the Shorthorn breed for crossbreeding. Shorthorn cross calves are vigorous and rugged with that extra hybrid vigor to add extra pounds to your calf crop at weaning. An even bigger bonus is in store for you when those Shorthorn-cross females are added to the cow herd. They will pay their way with extra fertility and mothering ability to wean more pounds of calf.

If you have been searching for a breed to cross with and want uniformity in quality and color, be in Broken Bow on March 1 to inspect this offering of rugged Shorthorn range bulls.

If I can be of service to you in any way please feel free to call on me.

SHORTHORN-HEREFORD COWS ARE SUPERIOR TO ANGUS-HEREFORD COWS AT CLAY CENTER

If you have Staitbred Hereford cows and are considering crossbreeding, study these facts from the U.S. Meat Animal Research Center at Clay Center, Ne. These results show that there is more heterosis for maternal traits in Shorthorn-Hereford cows than in Angus-Hereford cows. According to this study, the maternal heterosis in Hereford-Shorthorn crosses is 6.8% while the maternal heterosis in Hereford-Angus crosses is only 4.2%. This means the crossbred females resulting from the first cross on your Hereford cows will be better producing cows in your herd if you cross with a Shorthorn bull. In the U.S. Meat Animal Research Center study, calves from Shorthorn-Hereford cows were 11 pounds heavier at 200 days than calves from Angus-Hereford cows. That means dollars to you for each and every calf crop those Shorthorn cross cows are working in your herd.

Table 3. Effects of maternal heterosis on calf weights at birth, 135 days and weaning for specific crosses.
